

University of Otago Faculty of Law

LLM in Māori and Natural Resources Scholarship 2009

Closing Date: 1 December 2008

Value: An emolument of $12,000 plus tuition fees at the domestic student level and costs incurred in the production of two hard bound theses.

Tenure: Tenure is for one year, or until the thesis is submitted, whichever period is the shorter.

Location: University of Otago, New Zealand.

Summary: This Scholarship is offered by the Faculty of Law, University of Otago to an LLB graduate who wishes to commence in 2009 an LLM by thesis at the University of Otago on a topic related to Māori and natural resources (to be supervised by Ms Jacinta Ruru). The successful applicant will have a record of academic excellence. Preference will be given to Māori (specifically Ngai Tahu).

Contact: Jacinta Ruru

Address: Faculty of Law, PO Box 56, Dunedin, New Zealand

Tel: +64 3 479 8833

Fax: + 64 3 479 8855

Email: jacinta.ruru@otago.ac.nz

Website: <http://www.otago.ac.nz/law>