Excellent Training Opportunities at Canterbury Medical Library

Canterbury Medical Library is offering training in various resources for the remainder of the year. Come along to learn about CINAHL, the library catalogue and e-journals, and the OVID databases like MEDLINE and EMBASE. You’ll find details about when and where the sessions are, along with brief information regarding session content and how to book in, at: www.otago.ac.nz/christchurch/library/training/index.htm

We look forward to hearing from you.

Transport for Christchurch

This website has information on the latest traffic updates, planned roadworks, public transport, cycling and walking. The planned roadworks section includes an interactive map which lets you know the duration of the works and what sort of issues you might encounter at each site. Transport for Christchurch is managed by the Christchurch Transport Operations Centre, a joint venture of the Christchurch City Council, the NZ Transport Agency and Environment Canterbury.
