CareSearch

This Australian website contains a great deal of useful information on palliative care. It’s aimed at those needing information on palliative care, including health professionals, patients, and families. CareSearch is funded by the Australian Government, and users can search or browse the website. Users can search or browse the website, and there’s a special nurses’ hub area of the website that you’ll find in the CareSearch Hubs section under the ‘Health Professions’ part of the home page.

BBC: Historic Figures

www.bbc.co.uk/history/historic_figures/

This site is from the BBC, and contains hundreds of short biographies of historical figures. The entries are arranged alphabetically by surname, or you can search by surname. Entries for each historical figure will often include some sort of illustration. Some examples of people included in the website are Florence Nightingale, Muhammad Ali, William Wordsworth and Ernest Rutherford.
