The University Policy on Plagiarism (<http://www.otago.ac.nz/study/otago001533.html>) is meant to protect the vast majority of students who do their work honestly. Cheating is an attempt to gain unfair advantage and will not be tolerated. We have a useful 'Study Skills' guide on our History Web Page that includes a full plagiarism definition and how to avoid the charge (<http://www.otago.ac.nz/historyarthistory/studyskills/essays.html - plag>).

If you are ever in any doubt concerning what may be acceptable practice in relation to an assessment you should clarify the situation with your Lecturer before submitting the work, or taking the test or examination involved.

Statement of Academic Honesty
