NEW ZEALAND LAW SOCIETY CENTENNIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Each year, applications are invited for a grant or grants of up to $2,000 (amount of scholarship may vary) from the Centennial Scholarship Fund of the New Zealand Law Society.

The objects of the scholarship are:

- to assist enrolled law students in need during their qualifying years;
- to assist groups of students or law faculties, for example in the holding of debates or moots; and
- to encourage law reform and research by assisting qualified lawyers, in private practice or otherwise to undertake courses - research, reform, or refresher - whether in New Zealand or overseas.

There is no official application form. Applications should be by letter and should include a brief curriculum vitae, examination results, details of any research papers, and relevant experience. Two references should also be supplied. Applicants are asked to address the criteria, demonstrating how the award of a scholarship would meet their particular needs.

Applications close on 30 November each year.

Applications should be sent to the Executive Director, New Zealand Law Society, PO Box 5041 (DX SP20202), Wellington.
