C – REFERENCES

We require two letters of recommendation from those familiar with your academic work and research capabilities. If you have graduated from law school within the past five years, these references should be from members of the Academic Faculty at your law school. These letters can be included in the application (sealed letters only) or sent directly from the referee to the Faculty of Law. These references must be confidential. Please send the referee your proposed research plan and the Instructions for Referees Form (available on our website). Referees may be contacted for follow-up information.

D – PURPOSE OF GRADUATE STUDY

Please attach a brief (no more than 1 page) statement explaining your reasons for seeking admission to the post-graduate programme at Otago.

E – PROPOSED RESEARCH

The writing of a thesis under supervision is the major component of the PhD programme. Please attach a detailed outline (5 to 10 pages) of your proposed research. Please indicate what issues you plan to examine, why you think them worth studying, and what approach you expect to take in your analysis. This description will not preclude changes in your research proposal later on, but will help the Faculty ascertain your ability to design a substantial research project.

F – WRITTEN WORK

Please attach a sample of legal writing. Only English language samples may be submitted. If you cannot submit an English language sample, your capacity for legal research and writing will be judged on the basis of your research proposal.

G – SIGNATURE

I confirm that the information in, and submitted with, this application is true and correct.
