

Our seas and oceans – still to be explored and charted

Sponsored student presentations from the New Zealand Region Australasian Hydrographic Society Seminar 2015

Presenters:

Emily Tidey – What are our recent graduates up to?

Thomas Rutter (BSurv student) – Investigations into the use of Remotely Operated Survey Vessels (ROSV) for Nautical Charting

Sam McCloy & Michaela Thomson (BSurv students) – Running lines in Otago Harbour (work experience)

Jeremy McCaffrey (BSurv student) – Work Experience

Michael Wilke (BSurv student) – Work Experience

Cameron Abbey (MSc geophysics student) – “No, I can’t just swim down and look at it” - imaging submarine canyon processes in the Waitaki Canyon, North Otago

Andy Holt (MSc geophysics student) – Seismic Investigations of Shelf Sedimentation and Faults along the Coast of Otago from the Clutha River Mouth to the South Side of the Otago Peninsula

12:00 noon, Thursday, 16th July 2015

L1 Lecture Theatre

School of Surveying

310 Castle Street