

APPLICATION FOR FINAL EXAMINATION ONLY ENROLMENT (FEO)

1. A student who has failed to pass a paper may apply for Final Examination Only enrolment. If the application is approved, the student is permitted to have internal assessment results and terms* carried over in the paper and to sit the final examination again without attending any part of the course.
2. This concession may be granted only once in a particular paper.
The examination must be attempted at the end of the semester or full year in which a paper is offered next, except that it may be attempted earlier if the paper concerned is offered in a summer school.
3. Applications must be returned either in person to the University Information Centre in the Information Services Building or posted to the Manager, Student Administration, University of Otago, P O Box 56, Dunedin 9054, New Zealand by 10 January for papers next offered in the Summer School, by 1 March for papers next offered as full year or first semester papers, and 31 July for papers next offered as second semester papers. A fee will be charged if an application is approved. It should be noted that Government Student Loans do not cover this fee.
4. Final Examination Only students may not attend any lectures, laboratories, or tutorials, or receive assistance from academic staff, or have access to electronic holdings of course material, or receive printed course material.

Final Examination Only enrolments are not taken into account in any consideration of a student's status as a full-time or part-time student.
