

Marine Habitat Mapping: Linking Pattern and Process in Marine Systems

Emily Tidey

This presentation will outline the following key themes and areas of interest:

- acoustic measurements and methods used for marine habitat mapping;
- backscatter processing, analysis and classification;
- ground-validation methods and limitations;
- measurements to link pattern and process; and
- innovations in marine mapping.

12:00 noon, Thursday, 7 August 2014

L1 Lecture Theatre

School of Surveying

310 Castle Street