

ANZLHS Otago 2013

Legal History Conference
25th - 27th November

ANZLHS Conference Open Public Lecture

5.30pm Monday 25th November | Moot Court | 10th floor Richardson Building

Professor Lauren Benton (New York University)

Modalities of British Protection in the Early Nineteenth Century World

All welcome.

ANZLHS Conference Programme

With the New Zealand Law Foundation support, this will be a notable international interdisciplinary conference focused on considering the global, national and local ideas of the role of law in configuring historical understandings of people, power and place. See conference website for conference programme and registration details.

ANZLHS Conference website
www.otago.ac.nz/law/conferences/anzlhs.html

This conference is part of a 10 day history extravaganza at the University of Otago.
For details on other events, see the conference website.