Scottish Intercollegiate Guidelines Network

www.sign.ac.uk/

SIGN, or the Scottish Intercollegiate Guidelines Network, was developed over 20 years ago, and is funded by Healthcare Improvement Scotland. The website contains a good number of clinical guidelines on many topics, including acute coronary syndrome, care of deteriorating patients, and melanoma. The guidelines are available in full, and there are links to supporting material and related guidelines.

Information for CDHB Staff

There are problems with ScienceDirect journals on the CDHB network, and they're unfortunately not going to be resolved in the near future. The Articles of Interest publication includes a number of ScienceDirect journals. You will find instructions on how to work around the issue, on the CDHB intranet, at:

<http://cdhbintranet/corporate/canterburymedicallibrary/SitePages/Service%20Alert%20-%20ScienceDirect%20journals.aspx>

Please let us know if you need any further assistance.
