

Otago Law Review

Addresses

FW Guest Memorial Lecture 2009

The State and Monopolies: New Zealand's Experience

Dr James Every-Palmer

Inaugural Professorial Lecture

Child Labour in New Zealand: A job for the nanny state?

Paul Roth

Articles

Decisional Competence and 'Best Interests': Establishing the Threshold for Fitness to Stand Trial

WJ Brookbanks & RD Mackay

Parents and Their Truanting Children: an English Lesson in Liability Without Responsibility

G R Sullivan

Can Dispute Resolution Be Made Generally Available?

The Hon Geoffrey Davies AO

Public Perceptions of the New Zealand Court System: An Empirical Approach to Law Reform

Saskia Righarts & Mark Henaghan

Family Proceedings Concerning Children: The Nature of Natural Justice

John Caldwell

It's Not Yours, It's Mine! The Security Interest Holder, the Mortgagee, and Fixtures – A Powerful Cocktail

Elizabeth Toomey

Duress and the Variation of Contracts – Looking Beyond General Statements of Principle to the Results in Particular Cases

Struan Scott

VOLUME 12 NO 2 2010