

2020 PUBLIC HEALTH SUMMER SCHOOL

EXPERTS TALK

All Welcome

WELLINGTON

The Emerging Coronavirus Epidemic

Protecting our communities and ourselves

This forum will provide a valuable update on this growing epidemic. Topics will include what we know, such as the role of face masks and personal protective equipment in preventing the spread of coronavirus, and what still remains relatively unknown such as the seriousness of the epidemic and the potential for it to become a global pandemic.

Wednesday 12 February, 5:15pm

Nordmeyer Lecture Theatre, Level D | University of Otago | Wellington
23A Mein Street | Newtown | Wellington

For more information: otago.ac.nz/uowevents

Chair: Professor Michael Baker

Director, Health Environment Infection Research Unit, Department of Public Health, University of Otago Wellington

Michael Baker is a public health physician and infectious disease epidemiologist who is actively involved in tracking emerging infectious diseases and advising on the response.

Professor Raina MacIntyre

Head of the Biosecurity Research Program, Kirby Institute, University of NSW, Sydney

Raina MacIntyre is one of the world's leading researchers on biosecurity and the public health response to biosecurity threats.

Professor Nick Wilson

Director of BODE3, Department of Public Health, University of Otago, Wellington

Nick Wilson is a public health physician and epidemiologist who is an active researcher on the population impact of pandemic diseases.

