The University of Otago

Nau mai, haere mai ki Ōtākou Whakaihu Waka – a globally recognised university nestled among the natural beauty of New Zealand’s spectacular South Island. The University of Otago is Aotearoa New Zealand’s first university, founded in 1869, and is the top university in the country for educational performance (TEC Educational Performance Indicators). Our Dunedin campus is recognised as one of the world’s most-beautiful campuses, with impressive historic and modern architecture, situated just a short walk from the main city centre.

Dunedin is Australasia’s only true student city, offering an unmatched student experience with over 20,000 students living, working, and studying in Dunedin, creating an energy and atmosphere you will only find at Otago. Experience a true “kiwi” student lifestyle in the lively neighbourhoods surrounding campus, living as a community in Uniflats, self-catering flats. Otago is ranked #1 in the country for international student learning, with high student satisfaction rates, and world-class research-led teaching. For the adventure seeking student, experience the duality of study and travel that is highly appealing and accessible in Otago. Join our community of international students from more than 100 countries!

DUNEDIN is a small yet lively city on New Zealand’s South Island, recognised for its striking natural beauty and rich cultural heritage. Enveloped by gorgeous natural scenery, between the mountains, the harbour and the sea, with plenty to see and explore. Adventure is on Dunedin’s doorstep, with the beauty of all four seasons prompting an abundance of opportunities, from surfing, to skiing, to mountain biking - with the South Island travelable within a day. No other city in New Zealand has the same range, quality and accessibility of leisure activities. Spend your weekends hitting New Zealand’s top ski fields in Central Otago, and return home to the country’s wildlife capital, with rare creatures such as the Yellow-Eyed Penguin decorating Dunedin’s coast.
