PHD SCHOLARSHIPS

Postgraduate Opportunities at the Centre for Law & Policy in Emerging Technologies

Applications are invited for two 3-year PhD scholarships, located within the University of Otago Centre for Law & Policy in Emerging Technologies.

Any proposals concerning the interface between law and any emerging technologies will be considered, but the Centre has particular interests and expertise in:

- Genetic and reproductive technologies
- Neuroscience and law
- Regulation of nanotechnologies

Both Scholarships have an emolument of:

- $25,000 per year
- Tuition fees at the domestic student level
- Costs incurred in the production of two hard-bound theses

For enquiries please contact our postgraduate director, Mrs Jessica Palmer.
