

Geremie Barmé

Australian National University

Title:

Thirty Years of Spiritual Pollution

Abstract

During this anniversary of the 1983 Spiritual Pollution Campaign, it is useful to reconsider the history of China's response to the US 1950s' policy of 'peaceful evolution' and the impact it has had, and continues to have, on post-Cultural Revolution cultural policy and the evolution of soft power thinking in the People's Republic.