

Translational Research Grant (TRG) now open

Division of Health Sciences

Translation of research into products and services to benefit society.

Go to otago.ac.nz/healthsciences/research/innovation - click link for an application form and further details.

Value

- The grant is $50,000 (no overheads) or,
- If the selected project is eligible for pre-seed funding, the value will be up to $75,000 (no overheads).
- All academic research staff in the Division are eligible to apply.

Conditions

- The grant is to be used by the successful applicant(s) to "prove the concept".
- Close collaboration is required with Otago Innovation Ltd to plan and carry out research activities which will result in the proof of concept.
- The translational research aims to generate intellectual property and result in a patent application.

Applications close:
9am, Wednesday 7 November 2018

