Author declaration

- I confirm that the copy of my thesis deposited in OUR Archive is the approved version following examination processes. If any error arises in connection with the depositing of my thesis, including an error in the version uploaded, I will address this in a prompt manner. I acknowledge that deliberate uploading of a non-approved version of my thesis or willful failure to address any issues in a timely manner, may result in sanction, up to and including potential rescindment of my degree under clause 9.1 of the Degrees and Other Awards Statute 2011.
- I grant the University of Otago permission to store my work and make it available, in accordance with the level of access selected above, subject to any restriction.
- I acknowledge that any person who consults my thesis may use it in accordance with the provisions for 'fair dealing' set out in Sections 42 and 43 of the New Zealand Copyright Act. This includes:
  - Making reasonable quotation from it, provided that proper acknowledgement is made, for the purposes of criticism, review or news reporting, and
  - Making a single copy of a reasonable portion of it for the purposes of research or private study.
- To the best of my knowledge and belief the work does not infringe the copyright of any other person.

Regardless of the access that any person may have to your thesis, you retain copyright in your thesis, as outlined in the University of Otago 'Intellectual Property Rights of Graduate Research Students' (IPRGRS) Policy. Note that there are exceptions where, for example, your work was externally funded and restrictions were agreed on the dissemination of certain information (see IPRGRS Policy section 7). If you have any doubts discuss this with your supervisor.
