

ID CARD APPLICATION FORM 2014

For students living outside Dunedin during study ONLY

This form is for Distance Learning students and other students who do not live in Dunedin during teaching periods

Course Approval must be completed before an ID card can be issued, so there could be a delay between our receipt of this application and your receiving an ID card.

You must have an ID card to access Blackboard and the Library systems, and at examination time as proof of identity. If you have any queries, please email: idcard.officer@otago.ac.nz or telephone 64 3 479 5330. For more information about your ID card please refer to the 2014 Guide to Enrolment.

Please complete Sections A, B and C.

SECTION A: Please indicate which of the following you are studying via:

- I am enrolled in the Distance Learning* Programme.
- University of Otago, College of Education Southland Campus
- University of Otago, Christchurch
- University of Otago, Auckland Centre
- Summer School Programme, Wellington
- University of Otago, Wellington

*Note: students who are NOT studying in Dunedin and whose course includes papers with an 'X' code (e.g. NURX, RELX, GENX) are considered Distance students for ID card purposes.

• Send in this completed form to the ID Card Office who will post your card to the address you state below.

- Undergraduate students at the Wellington campus do not send in this form – your photo will be taken on enrolment day.
- Postgraduate and PhD students can either send in this completed form or, if you are on the Wellington campus, make an appointment with Ewen Coleman, tel 385 5864, email ewen.coleman@otago.ac.nz to have your photo taken.

All Wellington students except Summer School students must collect their ID Cards from the department Administrator for their course.
