Information for CDHB Staff

At present, there are problems with ScienceDirect journals on the CDHB network, and they're unfortunately not going to be resolved in the near future. The Articles of Interest publications include a number of ScienceDirect journals. You will find instructions on how to work around the issue, on the CDHB intranet, at:

<http://cdhb.intranet/corporate/canterburymedicallibrary/SitePages/Home.aspx>

Please let us know if you need any further assistance.

Recipe for Victory

<https://uwdc.library.wisc.edu/collections/humanecol/wwihomecook/>

This fascinating website comes from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and contains digitised versions of numerous UK and US cookbooks developed during WWI, to minimise waste and help the war effort on the home front. Browsing the collection is more straightforward than searching, and you can either flip through a cookbook once you've chosen it, or download PDFs of each section or chapter.
