Nau Mai Haere Mai ki Te Uare Taoka o Hākena:

Welcome to the Hocken Collections

He mihi nui tēnei ki a koutou

kā uri o kā hau e whā arā, kā mātāwaka o te motu, o te ao whānui hoki.

Nau mai, haere mai ki te taumata.

As you arrive

We seek to preserve all the taoka we hold for future generations. So that all taoka are properly protected, we ask that you:

- place your bags (including computer bags and sleeves) in the lockers provided
- leave all food and drink including water bottles in the lockers (we have a researcher lounge off the foyer which everyone is welcome to use)
- bring any materials you need for research and some ID in with you
- sign the Readers' Register each day
- enquire at the reference desk first if you wish to take digital photographs

Beginning your research

This guide gives examples of the types of material relating to the Pacific Islands held at the Hocken. All items must be used within the library. As the collection is large and constantly growing not every item is listed here, but you can search for other material on our Online Public Access Catalogues:

- for books, theses, journals, magazines, newspapers, maps, and audiovisual material, use Library Search|Ketu. The advanced search - <https://tinyurl.com/mtske2x9> gives you several search options, and you can refine your results to the Hocken Library on the left side of the screen.

The Library Search Guide <https://otago.libguides.com/ketuhelp> contains helpful tips and assistance for using Library Search|Ketu;

- for art, photographs, ephemera and archives, use Hākena - <https://hakena.otago.ac.nz>. Listing of the ephemera collection has just begun on Hākena; please talk to desk staff if you have any questions about this collection.

The Hākena Search Help Guide <https://otago.libguides.com/hakena> contains helpful tips and assistance for using Hākena;

- Digitised images of many collection items may be viewed via Library Search | Ketu (all collections), Hākena (archives, ephemera, art and photography collections) and Hocken Digital Collections <https://hocken.recollect.co.nz> (maps, sheet music, archives, ephemera, art and photography collections). Images can be downloaded from these sites but check the use and copying conditions for each item first.

To obtain full citation details of unpublished items (archives, ephemera, art and photography), and to locate other items from the same collections, please view them via Hākena and Hocken Digital Collections

- There is an online guide to the Hocken Collections for researchers at <https://otago.libguides.com/hocken>. It includes tips on referencing Hocken sources.

If you have any enquiries about ordering or other research questions, please ask the reference desk staff – they will be happy to assist you.

Bishop Museum bulletin in zoology, 1988-2007

These and more recent Bishop Museum bulletins are also available online at <http://hbs.bishopmuseum.org/pubs-online/index.html>.

To find books and journals articles published about the Pacific Islands the following bibliography (available via Library Search Ketu) is a useful starting point:

John Thawley (1997). Australasia and South Pacific islands bibliography. Lanham, Md.: Scarecrow Press.

Pacific language publications

We have numerous books in Pacific Island languages. These are catalogued on Library Search | Ketu. Under 'advanced search' you can limit a search by language. Some categories of books also have language-related subject headings, for example:

- Fijian language – Readers
- Gilbertese language – Bibliography
- Hawaiian language – Texts
- Marquesan language – Texts
- Niuean language – Grammar
- Pidgin English – Texts
- Rarotongan language – Dictionaries
- Samoan language – Texts
- Short stories – Samoan
- Tokelauan language – Readers
- Tongan language – Juvenile fiction
- Tongan language – Vocabulary
- Tuvaluan language – Texts

Vanuatu: Pacific Weekly Review (2002-Jan 2003); Tam-tam (1980-1984); Vanuatu Daily Post (2013-2019)

As well as the newspapers noted above, there are others for which we hold just one or two issues. Try a subject search on Library Search|Ketu using the name of the country which interests you, or for the town of publication, for example:

- Port Moresby (Papua New Guinea) – Periodicals
- Vanuatu – Newspapers

A few early Samoan and Cook Islands newspapers are now available online via Papers Past <https://paperspast.natlib.govt.nz/>.

Early European explorers

The Godward book collection (<https://tinyurl.com/48mb5wv4>) was donated by Robert Bruce Godward (1916-1992) and it includes various accounts of early travels by Europeans around the Pacific but is most notable for its works relating to Captain Cook.

The publications collection also includes published accounts from early explorers such as Bougainville, Dumont D'Urville, Marion du Fresne and La Pérouse. All items are individually catalogued on Library Search|Ketu – try a subject search using the name of the explorer.

Missionary records

We have large holdings of missionary records relating to the Pacific. These are a rich source of information on early European-Pacific contact and the history of Christianity in the Pacific. Try searching Library Search | Ketu and Hākena, the art, photography, ephemera and archives catalogue, using the name of the mission, the missionary, or the country concerned. Among the more notable records are:

London Missionary Society records, 1796-1903. Includes letters, reports and journals relating to Tahiti, the Society Islands, New Caledonia, Cook Islands, Samoa, Niue, Papua New Guinea, and the Torres Strait Islands. 115 reels of microfilm [call number 10131]. The microfilms can be found in the public microfilm section of the library. For further details, ask reference staff for the 'Microfilm Finding Aids: Missionary Papers' folder.

Methodist Missionary Society records, 1814-c.1880. Contain extensive material relating to Methodist missions in the South Seas (Tonga, Fiji, Samoa, and New Britain, as well as New Zealand). 65 reels of microfilm [call number 10163]. The microfilms can be found in the public microfilm section of the library. For further details, ask reference staff for the 'Microfilm Finding Aids: Missionary Papers' folder. We also have Wesleyan Methodist Missionary Society letters from missionaries in Fiji, 1835-1857. These 3 reels of microfilm can also be found in the public microfilm section of the library.

Melanesian Mission records, 1847-1965. Include papers of several missionaries serving in the field. The material relates principally to the Solomon Islands, Santa Cruz, Norfolk Island and Fiji. 5 reels of microfilm [call number 10383]. The microfilms can be found in the public microfilm section of the library. For further details, ask reference staff for the 'Microfilm Finding Aids: Missionary Papers' folder.

Micronesia Mission records, 1852-1929. Our records of this mission, run by the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, include material concerning the Federated States of Micronesia, Guam, Nauru, the Marshall Islands, Kiribati and Hawaii. 26 reels of microfilm [call number 10134]. The microfilms can be found in the public microfilm section of the library. For further details, ask reference staff for the 'Microfilm Finding Aids: Missionary Papers' folder.

Presbyterian Mission in Vanuatu: we have the manuscript papers of a number of missionaries who served in the New Hebrides, including Peter Milne [MS-0432], William Milne [95-027], Tom Smaill [Misc-MS-0440], Robert Murray [MS-1323] and Frederick Paton [MS-1121]. See Hākena for more details.

Catholic Missions: we have microfilms of various archives concerning Catholic missions in the Pacific, including records of the mission at Vila, New Hebrides [call number 10329]; correspondence of the New Hebrides Roman Catholic Church [PMB 590 – available for use in the public microfilm area]; Epistolae, 1843-1876: letters of Bishop Pierre Bataillon on the Wallis and Futuna Islands [call number 10268]; and miscellaneous

Marist Brothers papers concerning the Vicariates of New Caledonia and Samoa [call number 10187].

Church Missionary Society records, 1808-1884. Contains copies of most of the papers relating to the New Zealand and Pacific Missions run by the Church Missionary Society. 71 reels of microfilm [call number 10121]. The microfilms can be found in the public microfilm section of the library. For further details, ask reference staff for the 'Microfilm Finding Aids: Missionary Papers' folder.

Church Missionary Society records. Primarily New Zealand mission material, but includes miscellaneous Pacific letters, 1839-1855. Original manuscripts [MS-0498].

William Nihill papers, 1841-1854. Nihill was an Anglican missionary on the Isle of Mare (New Caledonia). Original manuscripts [MS-0720].

Pacific Manuscripts Bureau & Australian Joint Copying Project microfilms

The Pacific Manuscripts Bureau (PAMBU) copies archives and printed material relating to the Pacific Islands: see their full catalogue online at

<https://asiapacific.anu.edu.au/pambu/catalogue/index.php>. Their online resources page

<https://pambu.anu.edu.au/online-resources> includes links to some useful resources such as the Catalogue of South Seas Photograph Collections.

Further Pacific Island material has been filmed as part of the Australian Joint Copying Project (AJCP) <https://www.library.gov.au/research/access-collection/australian-joint-copying-project-ajcp>. Catalogues of AJCP microfilms are available in the reference area (some of these films are noted above under 'Government records').

We have some – not all – of these microfilms. The films we hold are individually catalogued on Library Search|Ketu. Further films in the series are available at the University of Otago Central Library.

Environment

The Hocken Collections holds a range of published sources relating to the environments of the Pacific Islands. They include information relating to the natural history, flora, fauna, climate, and natural disasters of the Pacific region and specific island groups, as well as the human impact on the environment. Try searching Library Search|Ketu using the following subject headings (substitute the name of the island group or area according to your research topic):

- Marshall Islands -- Environmental conditions
- Botany – Cook Islands
- Birds -- Fiji
- Natural history – Pacific Area
- Climatic changes – Oceania
- Natural disasters – Tonga
- Human ecology – Oceania
- Nuclear weapons -- Testing

Holdings include:

Niki J.P. Alsford (ed.) (2022). Pacific voices and climate change. Cham, Switzerland: Palgrave Macmillan.

Donald S. Garden (c2005). Australia, New Zealand, and the Pacific: an environmental history. Santa Barbara, Calif.: ABC-CLIO.

Alexander Gillespie, William C.G. Burns (eds.) (c2000). Climate change in the South Pacific: impacts and responses in Australia, New Zealand, and small island states. Dordrecht: Kluwer Academic Publishers.

Suliana Siwatibau, Pacific Conference of Churches and Greenpeace New Zealand (1995). Exodus: an introduction to environmental issues in the Pacific. Suva, Fiji: Pacific Conference of Churches, Auckland N.Z.: Greenpeace.

Look for references to environment-related topics for the Pacific Islands in New Zealand journal and newspaper articles via the database Index New Zealand <https://natlib.govt.nz/collections/a-z/index-new-zealand-innz>. This database is not full text, so you need to check Library Search | Ketu for holdings of the relevant publication and then order it to view the article. Try a search of the sources listed under 'Newspapers' on pages 7-8. See the University of Otago Library Pacific Studies subject guide at https://otago.libguides.com/pacific_studies for other useful resources.

Maps and atlases

Our maps and atlases are catalogued on Library Search | Ketu. Examples of early maps of the Pacific are:

Allain Manesson-Mallet (1683?). Isles de Salomon. Paris: D. Thierry.

James Cook, Robert Benard, Jacques Nicolas Bellin, Jean-François de La Harpe (1780). Carte de l'isle de Taiti. Paris: s.n.

Chassant, J.M. Hacq, J. Tastu (1833). Plan de l'île Tonga-Tabou. Paris: J. Tastu.

Great Britain. Hydrographic Dept. (1883). Fiji Islands, Eastern Group (Southern portion). London: Admiralty.

Other notable inclusions are a collection of early British and French hydrographic charts, a comprehensive collection of New Zealand hydrographic charts of the Pacific Ocean, and, more recently, New Caledonia series maps covering 1985-1995.

For further information see our Maps and Plans at the Hocken Collections research guide at <https://www.otago.ac.nz/library/hocken/guides-to-the-hocken-collections>.

Music

We hold numerous sound recordings, in various formats, of Pacific music both traditional and contemporary. We also have various books on Pacific music. Both books and sound recordings are catalogued on Library Search|Ketu – try a subject search for Pacific music or for a specific country, such as music Samoa (these searches will take you to various sub-headings, such as popular music, folk music, instrumental music).

In our archives collection we have material collected by Mervyn McLean, who was an ethnomusicologist at the University of Auckland. This collection includes recordings of Cook Islands music, along with publications relating to Cook Islands music. See Hākena for details [ARC-0613].

For further information see our Music Sources at the Hocken Collections research guide at <https://www.otago.ac.nz/library/hocken/guides-to-the-hocken-collections>.

Genealogy

Family Search <https://familysearch.org> provides access to Samoan Baptisms 1863-1940 and Samoan Burials 1895-1970 as well as some records for the Cook Islands, Hawaii, American Samoa, and Micronesia.

There are a limited number of Samoan and Micronesian records available via Ancestry (available on any of the public computers in the library. University of Otago/Otago Polytechnic staff and students can also access this database offsite with their account details).

Archives

In addition to the missionary archives, noted above, we have several archives collections concerning the Pacific. Try a 'place' search on Hākena for Pacific Area or for the specific country which interests you. Among the collections of interest are:

Angus Ross papers [ARC-0504]: the papers of Pacific historian Angus Ross include numerous papers relating to the Cook Islands, most of which came from Gregory Nevill, former Resident Commissioner there.

Edward Sayers papers [ARC-0123]: Sayers, a tropical medicine specialist, served as a medical missionary in the Solomon Islands and then as advisor to New Zealand and American forces in the Pacific during World War II. His papers include a diary and material relating to World War II in the Pacific and to tropical diseases.

H.D. Skinner papers [ARC-0484]: Skinner was a New Zealand anthropologist; his papers include material relating to early-twentieth century anthropology of the Pacific.

3 N.Z. Division Association, Otago Branch [MS-2138]: this was an organisation formed by members of the 3 N.Z. Division after their return from World War II military service in the Pacific. Their records include a wide range of material, including reminiscences and photographs from their time in the Pacific. For other papers relating to the Pacific War, search the subject heading World War, 1939-1945 – Pacific Islands on Hākena.

B.E.V. Parham papers [ARC-0740]: Bayard Eugene Vincent Parham was employed by the Fiji Department of Agriculture from 1933 to 1956 and during this time was the first Registrar of co-operatives in Fiji, founded the Fiji Herbarium and published numerous books and papers on the agricultural, horticultural and weed plants of Fiji. He retired from his post as Deputy Director of Agriculture in 1956 and took up the position of Director of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries in Western Samoa, a post he held until 1964. The collection includes both personal and business papers, predominantly focussing on Parham's periods of residence in Fiji (1933 to 1956) and later Western Samoa (1956 to 1964).

Photographs

Several photographs relating to the Pacific can be viewed via Hocken Digital Collections - <https://hocken.recollect.co.nz/>. We also have numerous other photographs and albums of the Pacific: try searching our holdings on Hākena (some items are also viewable there). Among the more notable collections are:

William Armstrong: photographs, including an album, of Vanuatu, c.1940s [P1995-026/1, album 317]

Andrew Ballantyne: album of photographs of Papua New Guinea, c. 1912-1915 [P2008-064, album 047]

Various Burton Brothers prints from the 'Camera in the Coral Islands' series taken in Samoa, Tonga and Fiji.

Photographs relating to the Cruise of the USS Corinna in Polynesia c.1890s, with scenes of people and scenery of the Cook Islands, Samoa and the Society Islands (Tahiti)[P1950-001/2, album 022]

Gladys Hocken: amateur photographs recording a holiday in Fiji and Samoa [P1910-006, album 039]

J. Peace: photographs of Vanuatu [P1998-069]

Edward Sayers: album of photographs of Solomon Islands [P1997-201, album 422]

D.M. Stuart: album of photographs of missions in Vanuatu, 1880s [P2008-077, album 078]

Tatersall: album of photographs of Samoa [P1998-073, album 009]

Jack Thomson: album of photographs taken in Samoa and Tonga [P2003-044, album 525].

Artworks

We have a large collection of prints and engravings relating to early European exploration, including the Pacific Islands along with New Zealand and Australia. There are around 1600 works in total, in three main collections: the Pacific collection, the Godward collection and the Roger Collins collection. There is also a bound publication of Jacques Grasset de Saint-Saveur etchings in the sketchbook sequence.

Later artworks by visitors to the Pacific include three sketchbooks by W.J. Reed, who was in the Treasury Isles, New Caledonia and Solomon Islands during World War II; sketchbooks of John Holliday Scott and J.T. Thomson; and two paintings of Samoa by G.P. Nerli.

Contemporary Pacific artists for whom we hold works are Michael Tuffery and Lonnie Hutchison. We have a large collection of works by Robin White, including some from her years living in Kiribati: there are a few prints and the work New Angel, a set of woven pandanus mats produced with a group of women in Kiribati.

Search for holdings on Hākena.

Ephemera

There is a limited amount of material related to the Pacific in the Ephemera collection. Much of it is tourism-related brochures and posters, but some items cover a range of Pacific issues and subjects. Please talk to desk staff if you wish to consult this material.
