

WANNA KNOW HOW TO HELP YOUR MATES?

Build a community that looks out for each other and doesn't tolerate inappropriate sexual behaviour.

Bringing in the Bystander is a free workshop designed to empower students to be effective bystanders in their communities.

Sign up and learn how to step in when you see something that doesn't feel right – you'll gain concrete skills so you feel confident helping your mates in any situation.

Email tw-t-prevention@otago.ac.nz to sign up,

WANNA KNOW HOW TO FLIP THE SCRIPT?

Sexual violence perpetrators are entirely responsible for their actions
– and we can resist them.

Flip the Script is a free workshop series designed to build on the knowledge you already have to increase your confidence and skills to resist sexual violence.

Sign up and join other female and NB students to learn to identify the warning signs of sexual violence and coercion, explore and expand your understandings and beliefs about relationships, sexuality and sexual violence as well as learn some practical physical techniques that can be used to resist sexual violence.

Email twt-prevention@otago.ac.nz to sign up,
or visit otago.ac.nz/wannaknow for more info.
