

SEMINAR

Department of Public Health

University of Otago, Wellington | 23A Mein Street | Newtown | Wellington

How housing affects well-being: examples from a recent stocktake and public health practice and policy

Philippa Howden-Chapman and Nevil Piersé
University of Otago, Wellington

The co-leaders of He Kainga Oranga / Housing and Health Research Programme present a selection of their current housing research and its impact on policy and public health practice.

Philippa Howden-Chapman is a professor of public health at the University of Otago, Wellington, where she is co-leader of He Kainga Oranga / Housing and Health Research Programme, and director of the New Zealand Centre for Sustainable Cities. Associate Professor Nevil Piersé is co-leader of He Kainga Oranga.

Friday 22 June 2018 12.30 to 1.15

Small Lecture Theatre, Level D, University of Otago Wellington

To join by web-conference go to: https://otago.ac.nz/zoom/ph_seminars

For more information, see <http://otago.ac.nz/UOWevents>

Watch previous seminars: UOW Public Health Seminars 2018

ALL WELCOME!