

2016 McKinlay Oration

Towards the global elimination of rabies: evidence, interventions, and impact

Professor Sarah Cleaveland OBE, FRS, FRSE

Prof Sarah Cleaveland is a global expert in zoonotic diseases, Professor of Comparative Epidemiology, University of Glasgow, UK and 2016 Williams Evans Visiting Fellow

Thursday 3 November 2016 | 7:00pm – 8:00pm
Dunedin Public Art Gallery | The Octagon | Dunedin

All Welcome

Celebrating
40 Years
1976-2016

The McKinlay Oration is sponsored by the Centre for International Health and is part of the Otago Global Health Institute (OGHI) 9th Annual Conference and the Australasian Society for Infectious Diseases (ASID) NZ Annual Meeting
otago.ac.nz/oghiconference | asid.net.au/groups/nz-annual-meeting