

The University of Otago and Dalian University of Foreign Languages (DUFL)

Joint Degree Programme

Complete three semesters of prescribed study for the Bachelor of Arts in English with DUFL, plus four semesters of study at Otago and earn a University of Otago Bachelor of Arts (BA), majoring in English or Linguistics.

Why Otago?

As New Zealand's first university, founded in 1869, the University of Otago has earned an international reputation for the quality of its teaching and research.

Among the top 1% of universities in the world, Otago has the highest possible international quality rating and is ranked as the best university in New Zealand for international student learning, teaching, studies, and facilities.

Otago's world-class teaching and legendary lifestyle make it the first choice for students within New Zealand and from around the globe

Bachelor of Arts (Linguistics or English) at Otago

A Bachelor of Arts (BA) is excellent preparation for almost any career.

The Linguistics major will improve English language skills while training students in TESOL and applied linguistics. The English major prepares graduates for any career that uses English as a primary language of communication.

When completing their chosen major, students also select electives from the list provided.

Entrance requirements

Applicants must have completed the prescribed DUFL papers with an overall grade point average of B.

Admission will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Applicants must meet the University of Otago's English language entry requirements: IELTS score of 6.0 in the academic module (with no individual band below 5.5).

Career opportunities

Graduates may be eligible for a post-study work visa in New Zealand for up to three years. Details can be found at immigration.govt.nz
