

The Neville Marquet Prize in Resource Management and Environmental Law

This prize was established in 2017 by family and friends of Neville Stanley Marquet, a pioneering Resource Management and Environmental lawyer of Dunedin firm, Ross Dowling Marquet Griffin. Mr Marquet practised in almost every division of the Environment Court throughout New Zealand and is known for being a pioneer of planning and resource management in a career spanning more than 50 years. Mr Marquet was President of the Otago District Law Society in 1975, Vice- President of the NZ Law Society from 1976-1979 and he also sat on the NZLS Disciplinary Committee for 13 years (7 as the Chair).

Nominations for the Neville Marquet Prize in Resource Management and Environmental Law are open to students who are currently studying towards a Bachelor of Laws degree (third year law or above) OR a postgraduate qualification in Law and who wish to pursue a career with a focus on resource management.

Prize Value: $1,000

How to apply:

Submit a copy of your CV, academic record and a written essay (of no more than 1000 words) outlining why you wish to pursue a career in the field of resource management. Applications can be emailed to law.prizes@otago.ac.nz or handed into the Faculty of Law Reception.

Applications close: Friday 13 October 2023