

ACTIVITY PASSPORT

Graduate Research School
Te Kura Rangahau Tāura

Welcome to your graduate research journey at the University of Otago.

Here at the Graduate Research School, we know it's really important to get out of your office or lab and discover all that Dunedin and the wider Otago region has to offer, so we've designed this passport full of suggestions of places to go and things to see.

To make it easier to plan your adventure, there is a suggested travel distance from the Clocktower Building.

At each activity, there are often multiple things to do. Check the icons on each activity to give you an idea.
