MedlinePlus

<https://medlineplus.gov/>

MedlinePlus is one of the many useful resources provided for free by the National Library of Medicine, in the United States. Developed for patients, the section on health topics includes information on diseases, conditions and diagnostic tests. There's also a separate section on drugs and supplements. The site is easy to search, and results display very clearly. Most information is relevant for New Zealand patients, too.

Procrasta.net

TED Talks

<https://www.ted.com/talks>

TED began as a conference over 30 years ago, where experts in Technology, Entertainment and Design met and discussed the latest gadgets and ideas. Today, TED covers a huge number of topics, and this website helps you find TED Talks, short videos of the best TED content made available for free online. The site is easy to browse or search, and topics covered include health, technology, sociology and education.
