

Te Rōpū Rangahau o Te Kāhui Matepukupuku
Cancer Society Research Collaboration

Skin cancer prevention publications

Shade in the New Zealand context

McNoe, B.M. Prevention is better than a cure: We can do better in skin cancer control in New Zealand! October 22. New Zealand Medical Journal. 2021; 134(1544): 138-144. Access publication here

McNoe, B. M. (2021, 10 Nov) A call to action on skin cancer. Access publication here

Health considerations in New Zealand National Sporting Organisations (NSO) policies

McNoe, B. M., Marsh, L., Venter, N., Morgaine, K. C., Reeder, A. I., & McLean, R. M. National Sporting Organisation policies: A health promotion opportunity? Health Promotion Journal of Australia. 2023;34(2):480-487. doi: 10.1002/hpja.601. Access publication here

Policy research to support advocacy on skin cancer prevention

Gage, R. Leung, W. Gurtner, M. Reeder, A.I., McNoe, B. M., Signal, L. Generating political priority for skin cancer primary prevention: A case study from Aotearoa New Zealand. Health Promotion Journal of Australia. 2022; 33(3): 740-750. Doi: 10.1002/hpja.545. Access publication here

McNoe B, Gage R, Signal L. What can Aotearoa New Zealand learn from the Australian SunSmart Story? A qualitative study. Aust NZ J Public Health. 2022; 46(3): 387-393. Doi: 10.1111/1753-6405.13243. Access publication here