

Department of Preventive & Social Medicine
Guest Seminar

Dr Kaaren Mathias

"Now I can join others at the temple"
- a mixed methods realist evaluation of a programme to increase social inclusion for young people with psycho-social disability in North India

Kaaren Mathias, (MBCChB, MPH, PhD) is a public health physician from NZ, working in mental health leadership and in building research capacity in the Emmanuel Hospital Association, India. She is also director of the Burans partnership project: working with communities in Uttarakhand for mental health. In mental health her project work and research include a focus on social inclusion, recovery, gender equality and primary mental health system strengthening.

Friday 20th April, 12noon Room 033/036, Ground Floor, Adams Building, 18 Frederick Street

All interested people are cordially invited to attend