

New Process for Special Consideration for Mid Year Assessments and Final Examinations

As Student Health has recently made some changes to its Health Declaration procedures, the process for applying for special consideration for mid year assessments and final examinations has changed. Following is a flowchart for the updated process.

Please note that there is now a charge for Health Declarations from Student Health.

