Turanga Health

Natasha Ashworth
Programme Leader,
Tairāwhiti IPE

Main Boardroom, Turanga Health | 145 Derby St, Gisborne
Thursday 1 August 2019 | 12.00–12.40pm

- Turanga Health and the workplace – a local Māori community health provider's response to connecting those with chronic conditions in the workplace, to whare (home) or kāinga (community) primary care supports
- This is interprofessional collaborative practice in action, and a fantastic learning environment for students as they learn to walk the IPE talk
- Students contribute to Turanga Health through a wide variety of community projects
