

NOTICE
DISCIPLINE POD PROGRAMME 2018
NZ Women in Leadership (NZWiL)

Information Systems, Computer Science, Engineering, Physics, Agriculture and Horticulture

Programme Dates: Tuesday, 27 November – Thursday, 29 November 2018

Time Commitment:

- Day 1: 12.45pm – 5.30pm & Evening Session, 6.00 – 8.30pm
- Day 2: 8.30am – 5.30pm & Dinner Event, 6.00 – 8.30pm
- Day 3: 9.00am – 12.30pm

Location: University of Auckland, City Campus

Programme Content:

- Engaging within and beyond your institution
- Building an academic identity, agency in the system
- Understanding the tertiary and university environment
- Building research platform/Sustaining and enhancing research
- Strategic approach to teaching
- Wellbeing across the academic career

Target Audience: [Note: Programme will cater for up to 20 participants]

Women at Lecturer and Senior Lecturer levels with a completed doctorate who are academic staff members in one of the following disciplines: Information Systems, Computer Science, Engineering, Physics, Agriculture and Horticulture at a NZ University. The programme caters for women who aspire to be in leadership positions in academia and leaders in their discipline. The focus is on building a national network of women in disciplines with particular equity and/or human capital challenges.

Applications: Open 16 May 2018 and close on Friday, 29 June 2018

Nomination Form: Available from the NZWiL Programme Convenor, Sarah Schulz at sarah@peoplelevel.co.nz.

Programme Fee: $1,450+GST per person (NB: Excludes any travel and accommodation costs)
NB: All nominees will need to be endorsed and funded by their home Department and/or Faculty i.e. Academic Head and Dean.

Discipline Pod Programme developed by:

NZWiL Steering Group - Pod Programme Advisors

Professor Gill Dobbie, University of Auckland
Professor Candice Harris, AUT University
Professor Sonia Mazey, University of Canterbury
Annemarie de Castro, Victoria University of Wellington
Dr Dianne McCarthy, NZWiL Advisor
Sarah Schulz, NZWiL Programme Convenor and Subject Matter Experts

20 April 2018