

Department of Languages and Cultures

French Programme

presents a talk by French writer

Amélie Lucas-Gary

“From Paris to Wellington: an unusual journey into literature”

Laureate of the Randell Writers Cottage Residency in Wellington 2018.

Photographer-turned-writer Amélie Lucas-Gary is the Randell Cottage's French writer in residence for 2018. Born in 1982, in Arcachon in France's South West, she studied at the Sorbonne, graduating with degrees in cinema and history, and photography at the National School of Photography in Arles.

Wednesday 7th March
5-6pm

Castle C Lecture Theatre

