

Centre for Society,
Governance and Science

4th Australia-New Zealand Roundtable on Genomics

Ethical, Legal and Social Aspects of Next-Generation Methodologies, with particular reference to prenatal testing, general issues about managing incidental findings, and current issues in research involving Maori

---

Sunday 4th August 2013, 12noon – 4pm
Galaxy Room 3, Millennium Hotel
32 Frankton Rd, Queenstown

---

Provisional Programme

Aims

- Roundtable I: To provide an overview of prenatal testing and to discuss issues raised by new technologies
- Roundtable II: To discuss general issues about managing incidental findings and current issues in research involving Maori

11:45 – 12:00	Registration & Name Stickers
12:00 – 12:05	Intro/Welcome
12:05 – 12:15	Address: Tony Lough, CEO, NZ Genomics Ltd
12:15 – 1:50	Roundtable I: HGSA's ESIC Session – Hypothetical Scenarios on Prenatal Testing Jan Hodgson (Chair), Ainsley Newson, Marleen Susman, George McGillivray, Colin Gavaghan, Mark Henaghan
1:50 – 2:10	Break & Refreshments
2:10 – 3:45	Roundtable II: SoGoS Session – Managing Incidental Findings and Current Issues in Research involving Maori Ingrid Winship (Chair), Cris Print, Clara Gaff, Phil Wilcox, Jo Fitzpatrick, Mark Henaghan, Colin Gavaghan
3:45 – 4:00	Closing Words: Lynda Hagen, NZ Law Foundation, & Kevin Carpenter, HGSA President
4:00 ~	Mix & Mingle

* Note that HGSA members need to be ready for the cruise ship to leave at 5pm