

Faculty of Law

Te Kaupeka Tātai Ture

Teaching period: Monday 11 January – Friday 19 February
Examination period: Saturday 20 February – Thursday 25 February

Taught in Dunedin

LAWS 444 Intellectual Property

Description

The law protecting ownership and related rights in the expression and use of ideas, including copyright, patents, registered designs, trademarks, rights to confidential information, and actions for “passing off”.

Prerequisites

LAWS 202 and LAWS 203 and 36 further LAWS points

Restrictions

None

Lectures

Tue (26 Jan, 2 Feb), Wed (27 Jan, 3, 10 Feb), Thu (28 Jan, 4, 11 Feb): 9am–12pm

Lecturer

Emeritus Professor Michael Pendleton, Murdoch University

LAWS 486 Special Topic 15: Not for Profit Law

Description

This course considers theoretical and practical aspects of not-for-profit law, using a national and international perspective.

Prerequisites

LAWS 201–204

Restrictions

None

Lectures

Mon (11, 18 Jan), Tue (12, 19 Jan), Wed (13, 20 Jan), Fri (15, 22 Jan): 9am–12pm

Lecturer

Professor Matthew Harding, Faculty of Law, University of Melbourne

Taught in Wellington

LAWS 352 International Tax Law and Policy

Description

Selected issues in international tax law and policy.

Prerequisites

LAWS 201–204, 416

Restrictions

None

Lectures

Sat (9, 16, 30 Jan), Sun (17 Jan): 9am–3:30pm

Lecturers

Brendan Brown, Partner Russell McVeagh.
Casey Plunket, Special Policy Advisor, Inland Revenue Department

LAWS 471 Special Topic 2: International Trade

Description

This course introduces students to the multilateral legal rules governing international trade with particular focus on the World Trade Organisation. There will also be a focus on recent challenges to the multilateral system arising out of events including the US-China trade war and the COVID-19 pandemic.

Prerequisites

LAWS 201–204

Restrictions

None

Lectures

Tue (12, 19, 26 Jan, 2, 9, 16 Feb): 5:30–8:30pm
Sat (13 Feb), Sun (14 Feb): 9am–1:30pm

Lecturer

Dr Tracey Epps, Trade Law Consultant, Chapman Tripp

Taught in Auckland

LAWS 350 Lawyers, Clients and the Profession

Description

Form a broad perspective on the role of the lawyer, lawyering as a profession, lawyering skills, and lawyers' relationships to clients. Consider the future of legal services.

Prerequisites

LAWS 201–204

Restrictions

LAWS 475 2018–2020

Lectures

Mon (18 Jan): 5–8pm
Sat (23 Jan, 13 Feb): 10am–4pm
Also 12 hours online teaching

Lecturer

Dr Bridgette Toy Cronin, University of Otago

LAWS 449 Criminal Procedure

Description

The law and policy of criminal procedure in New Zealand and an introduction to the application of criminal procedure processes to practical problems.

Prerequisites

LAWS 201–204, 414

Restrictions

None

Lectures

Tue (12, 19, 26 Jan, 2, 9, 16 Feb), Thu (14, 21, 28 Jan, 4, 11, 18 Feb): 5–7pm

Lecturer

Jo Murdoch, Special Counsel, Meredith Connell

Please note: There will be no Law paper offered in the Pre-Christmas Summer School period in November/December 2020