Nau Mai Haere Mai ki Te Uare Taoka o Hākena:

Welcome to the Hocken Collections

He mihi nui tēnei ki a koutou

kā uri o kā hau e whā arā, kā mātāwaka o te motu, o te ao whānui hoki.

Nau mai, haere mai ki te taumata.

As you arrive

We seek to preserve all the taoka we hold for future generations. So that all taoka are properly protected, we ask that you:

- place your bags (including computer bags and sleeves) in the lockers provided
- leave all food and drink including water bottles in the lockers (we have a researcher lounge off the foyer which everyone is welcome to use)
- bring any materials you need for research and some ID in with you
- sign the Readers' Register each day
- enquire at the reference desk first if you wish to take digital photographs

Beginning your research

This guide gives examples of the types of material relating to Australia held at the Hocken. All items must be used within the library. As the collection is large and constantly growing not every item is listed here, but you can search for other material on our Online Public Access Catalogues:

- for books, theses, journals, magazines, newspapers, maps, and audiovisual material, use Library Search | Ketu. The advanced search - <https://goo.gl/HVNTqH> gives you several search options, and you can refine your results to the Hocken Library on the left side of the screen.

The Library Search Guide <https://otago.libguides.com/ketuhelp> contains helpful tips and assistance for using Library Search | Ketu;

- for pictures, photographs and archives and manuscripts, use Hākena -

<https://hakena.otago.ac.nz>

The Hākena Search Help Guide <https://otago.libguides.com/hakena> contains helpful tips and assistance for using Hākena;

- some of the photographs from the Pictorial Collections are available for viewing online via Hocken Snapshot at <https://hocken.recollect.co.nz>. Some other photographs and artworks can be viewed at <http://otago.ourheritage.ac.nz/>.

If you have any enquiries about ordering or other research questions please ask the reference desk staff – they will be happy to assist you.

New Zealand was administered by New South Wales from 1839 until it became a separate colony in November 1840. Dr Hocken intensively collected material relating to this early settlement period. The library continues to build on this collection and now holds a variety of resources relating to nineteenth and early twentieth century Australia and Australians.

Archives and Manuscripts

A variety of material relating to Australia and Australians is held in our archives and manuscripts collection, including:

- Letters, diaries and journals
- Records of shipping, voyaging, emigration and early settlement
- Company records, sports files, medical papers
- Church records, missionary records, religious pamphlets and newsletters
- Military records
- Miscellaneous Australian-related correspondence
- Notes on Aboriginal language

Search for this material on Hākena, the pictures, photographs, archives and manuscripts catalogue. Try a place search with the term 'Australia' or try a subject search with the terms:

- Australian aborigines
- Australia – Description and travel
- Australia – History
- Missionaries – Australia

The archives collection includes the following records:

Beatrice Esplin: Rev. William Mugford Grant papers [MS-0951]. The collection includes diaries, journals, correspondence, notebooks, financial records and photographs. Most of the material relates to Rev. Grant's involvement in the Congregational Church both in South Australia and Port Chalmers, Dunedin.

Mrs R.E. Horn: Family papers [Misc-MS-0906]. John Aspinall Junior was killed on 13 March 1896 in a remote part of Western Australia. This collection consists of a photographic copy of a Miner's Right certificate issued to John Aspinall on 18 May 1861. It also includes a diary written by his son John covering his travels from Skippers Point to Western Australia, 19 February 1895 to 13 March 1896.

Henry Beresford Garrett: An account of prison life in Australia [Misc-MS-0475]. Henry Beresford Garrett was a notorious criminal in Australia and Otago. He used the pseudonym 'Klodopr' in his writings.

Hilda Adam Kring: Collections of New Zealand and Australian superstitions [Misc-MS-1959]. In 1966, while visiting New Zealand, American folklorist Hilda A. Kring collected local superstitions from Pakeha New Zealanders. Most of the contributors were Canterbury teachers and teachers' college students. She carried out a similar project in Australia the same year. The collection includes two typescripts, 'In the Land of Witches' Britches' (New Zealand) and 'Superstitions Under the Southern Cross' (Australia). Each includes an introduction, a list of superstitions arranged by category, and a list of informants.

[Unknown]: Theatre Clippings Books [AG-231]. The books include clippings relating to theatres and cinemas in Dunedin, Oamaru, Timaru, Ashburton and Australia. They contain clippings for the Princess Theatre, Dunedin and Brennan-Fullers Ltd. (1917-1931), as well as a collection of vaudeville programmes.

See the University of Otago Library subject guide on History for more tips on locating Australian primary sources <https://otago.libguides.com/history>.
