Paper Description and Aims

This paper aims to create awareness and understanding of the different theoretical foundations of marketing, thereby broadening and deepening your knowledge and perspective of marketing as an academic discipline, its role in organisations, as well as its broader social and economic functions.

Learning Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this paper, you should be able to demonstrate

- commitment to the fundamental importance of the acquisition and development of knowledge and understanding in the Marketing Theory area;
- commitment to intellectual openness and curiosity, and the awareness of the limits of current Marketing Theory knowledge and of the links amongst other disciplines;
- a well-developed ability to effectively communicate Marketing Theory information, arguments and analyses in writing;
- understanding the principles that govern social systems of markets, and understanding of the effects of human engagement within these systems.

You should contact the Damien Mather with any administrative enquiries about the paper.

All requests for late submissions of assignments should be addressed to the programme directors. Associate Professor Leah Watkins (MMart programme director)
Email: leah.watkins@otago.ac.nz
Dr Mathew Parackal (PGDip programme director)
Email: mathew.parackal@otago.ac.nz

Expectations for Staff Response Time to Email Enquiries – 9am to 5pm, Monday to Friday, email response will generally be within 48 hours. Please be aware that staff are not available to respond to emails between 5pm Friday and 9am Monday.
Course Delivery

Seminar and/or Lecture Day/Time: Tuesday 10:00 am – 11:50 am
Room: OBS 4.26

Lectures present the key conceptual material through discussion and interaction between teaching staff and students. Lectures are supported by readings.
Seminars are interactive sessions, containing presentations, discussion, analysis and critique.

Course Calendar The course calendar (in this outline) details scheduling information. Note that this calendar may change as the course proceeds. Any changes will be announced at lectures and be detailed on Blackboard.

Students are expected to prepare for and attend all classes to gain full benefit from the course.

These activities should be prepared for by reviewing information detailed on Blackboard and completing any assigned readings. Students unable to attend a lecture are expected to catch up on missed material. Unless stated otherwise, all aspects of the course are examinable.

Expectations and Workload

MART 461 is a 20 point paper. As a general guide, 1 point represents study in formal instruction or independent study for 12 hours, made up of a combination of lectures, laboratories, tutorials assignments and readings. As a result you should anticipate spending approximately 240 hours on this subject over the duration of the semester.
Course Learning Resources

There is no text book. Readings will be supplied on Blackboard, and students must read these before each seminar. Students will present their summaries of each reading, as well as providing answers to questions about the papers during the seminars.

Blackboard

Blackboard https://blackboard.otago.ac.nz provides you with access to course materials, class notices, and resources. Blackboard is used to email the whole class so it is important that you check your student email and Blackboard regularly.

Student Webmail

IMPORTANT - DO THIS NOW:
Forward your University email address to an email address that you use regularly as follows:

1. Log into your StudentMail account using your student username and password
2. Click Cog button (top right corner) > Options
3. Under Account, select the Forward your email shortcut under the Short Cuts menu on the right side of the screen.
4. Under the Forwarding heading, type in the email address you want your email to be forwarded to. You can also choose to have a copy of these emails kept on your StudentMail account, so please check the box if you would like this.
5. Click the Start forwarding button.

Assessment

All material presented is examinable (except where stated otherwise) by assignments and the final examination. All-important assessment information such as due dates and times, content, guidelines and so on will be discussed at lectures and, where appropriate, detailed on Blackboard. Topics as listed in the course schedule from weeks 4 to 10 will be assigned to students in week 1 to prepare their topic presentation and topic essay. Students are responsible for ensuring that they are aware of this information, especially their assigned topic, keeping track of their own progress, and catching up on any missed classes.

Assessment Rubric

This rubric applies to all internal assessment components:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Access info sources &amp; extract useful scholarly and practice information.</th>
<th>Exemplary</th>
<th>Good</th>
<th>Adequate</th>
<th>Unsatisfactory</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Integrates a comprehensive discussion of pertinent information</td>
<td>Integrates a variety of relevant, information</td>
<td>Some appropriate but limited information sourced</td>
<td>No or very scholarly information gathered, lacks relevance</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>

| Critically evaluate and use information effectively to demonstrate an in-depth knowledge of topical and contemporary issues | Demonstrates a clear and wide-ranging understanding of current and relevant literature. Alternative points-of-view are synthesised. | Demonstrates a good understanding of the key literature. Some evidence of alternative points-of-view have been presented. | There is limited evidence that key literature has been considered. Discussion focused on prominent issues only and lacks balance. | There is little evidence of understanding the current literature relevant to the given problem. Discussion not balanced. |

| Style appropriate for audience | Uses the language and conventions used in related academic/professional literature | Appropriate style for the intended audience | Exhibits some failure to adapt to the audience | Not appropriate for the audience |

| Discussion structure, flow, coherence, time | Discussion has excellent structure; flow is clear. | Discussion has a clear structure (beginning, middle, end) and good flow but some waffle. | Discussion shows some lack of coherency. | Discussion incoherent; lacks organisation or relevance. |

| Integration of feedback | Feedback is evaluated dispassionately and positions are modified if appropriate | An honest attempt to integrate feedback, but still some traces of confirmation bias | Feedback is used, but only in a token fashion | Inability to integrate feedback |

Course Requirements
This course uses both formative and summative assessments (formative: 1st assignment (essay), presentation, a mock exam or ‘dry-run’) during or after which you receive feedback, comments or summary information to help you improve. To obtain an overall grade and pass the course you must at least pass the 2nd assignment (essay) and the in-house exam, i.e., the summative parts which summarise your achievements and make up your final grade. The formative parts of the assessment will build you up to pass the summative assessments but will also gain percentage points towards your final grade.

Assessment Format
The assignment 1 (essay) contains your study and view on Marketing, and what its functions and challenges are in business and society. The rubric on page 5 indicates how it will be marked. You will receive comments to help you write the second essay (for both of which you will need to include a literature review).

The presentation gives you the opportunity to outline what you have read thus far for the 2nd assignment essay, and how you researched, describe, analyse and critique your topic. While this will be marked, you will also receive questions and feedback from the floor. These will help you for the write-up of the essay, which is to be handed in during class, 2 weeks after your presentation.

The exam ‘dry-run’ will consist of your attempt to write a short outline of how you would answer a set (mock) exam question. We will discuss and critique your attempt but not mark it.

The final exam will take place in class and contain 1-3 topics to choose from and answer. You will not be asked to cite the sources of your ideas – although you are welcome to do so when you remember who said what, but will be challenged to critically analyse a question and present a well-structured and argued response.

Assignment Submission Procedure (optional)
Submission through Turnitin
https://help.otago.ac.nz/blackboard/assessing-your-students/turnitin/turnitin-for-students/

Late Assignments
Please refer to the policy at the back of this course outline.

Maori Language Policy
The University of Otago has a Māori Language Policy which promotes the use of te reo Māori by staff and students. For more detail about this policy and its procedures, go to: http://www.otago.ac.nz/administration/policies/otag0003239
Commerce students who intend to present an assessment or examination in te reo Māori must write to (Manager of Student Administration, Academic Services: student.admin@otago.ac.nz), who will then inform the Head of Department (HoD). This must be done at the beginning of the paper (within the first three weeks of the semester) to allow sufficient time for suitable arrangements to be made for marking, including translation and external assessment (if necessary).
Quality Assurance

At the Otago Business School we monitor the quality of student learning and your learning experience. Your assessed work may be used for assurance of learning processes, such as evaluating the level of achievement of learning outcomes, with the aim of improving the quality of our programmes. All material used for quality assurance purposes will be treated as confidential and the outcome will not affect your grades.

Academic Integrity

Students should ensure that all submitted work is their own. Plagiarism is a form of academic misconduct (cheating). It is defined as copying or paraphrasing another’s work and presenting it as one’s own. Any student found responsible for academic misconduct in any piece of work submitted for assessment shall be subject to the University’s dishonest practice regulations, which may result in serious penalties, including forfeiture of marks for the piece of work submitted, a zero grade for the paper, or in extreme cases, exclusion from the University. The University of Otago reserves the right to use plagiarism detection tools.

Students are advised to inform themselves about University policies concerning dishonest practice and take up opportunities to improve their academic and information literacy. If necessary, seek advice from academic staff, or the Student Learning Centre. The guideline for students is available at this link: http://www.otago.ac.nz/study/academicintegrity/index.html

Further information about the Academic Integrity Policy, the Student Academic Misconduct Procedures and the Academic Integrity can be found through the links below. The Academic Integrity website in particular has a number of useful inks and suggestions as to where students can get help with referencing issues.

Guidelines for Learning at Otago
http://hedc.otago.ac.nz/hedc/learning/

Student Learning Centre
The Student Learning Centre, which is part of the Higher Education Development Centre, provides learning support, free of charge, to ALL enrolled students. Their services include:

- a workshop programme designed to help students to improve their learning strategies and their generic skills;
- individual assistance with learning issues;
- on-line study skills advice;
- a student leadership programme
- a student-led peer support programme for students of all ages and backgrounds.
- conversational English groups for students from a non-English speaking background

The Centre also provides two very helpful study guides, “Guidelines for Writing and Editing” and “Writing University Assignments” and these are available on the SLC website.
http://slc.otago.ac.nz/

Library Support
The Library website http://www.otago.ac.nz/library provides access to resources and services, including group room bookings, library hours and locations, past exam papers, subject guides, article databases and more.

If you need assistance either check out the self-help guides http://otago.libguides.com/selfhelp, or ask Library staff at the ground floor service desks, or email ask.library@otago.ac.nz

Māori Student Support
Kaiārahi Māori
Contact Rachel Sizemore
Email: kaiarahi.obs@otago.ac.nz
Their role is to help link Māori students with the various support networks throughout the university and the community.
Pacific Islands' Student Academic Advisor
Warm Pacific Greetings
Talofa lava, my name is Esmay Eteuati and my role is to liaise with Academic Departments and Student Services relating to Pacific students’ and their course of study. I support both staff and students in the Business School and have a network of Pacific contacts in other Divisions around the University.
Email: esmay.eteuati@otago.ac.nz
Tel: 479 4756

Marketing Department support person for Maori/Pacific Island students is Kirsten Robertson. Contact Kirsten at the following:
Email: kirsten.robertson@otago.ac.nz
Tel: 479 8451

Equity Advisor
Students are encouraged to seek support if they are having difficulty with their studies due to disability, temporary or permanent impairment, injury or chronic illness. It is important to seek help early, through one of the contacts below:
Mathew Parackal

Student Feedback

We encourage your feedback. This can be in the form of contacting staff, participating in course evaluation surveys and communicating with class representatives. Continual improvements will be made to this course based in part on student feedback. Recent changes to this course as a result of constructive feedback include a new lecturer, a wider range of marketing theories discussed and more opportunities for students to integrate formative feedback prior to tackling more heavily weighted assessment tasks

Class Representatives
The class (or student) representative system is an avenue for encouraging communication and consultation between staff and students. It provides you with a vehicle for communicating your views on the teaching and delivery of the paper and provides staff with an opportunity to communicate information and gain constructive feedback from students. It contributes to the development of a sense of community within a department and it adds a further dimension to the range of support services offered to students.

Volunteers for the role of class representatives will be called early in the semester. The OUSA invites all class representatives to a training session, conducted by OUSA, about what it means to be a class representative and some of the possible procedures for dealing with issues that arise. They also provide information on the services that OUSA offers and the role OUSA can play in solving problems that may occur. The OUSA provides support to class representatives during the semester. Departmental staff will also meet with class representatives during the semester to discuss general issues or matters they wish to have considered.
Your class representative’s name and contact details will be posted on Blackboard early in the semester.

Concerns about the Course
We hope you will feel comfortable coming to talk to us if you have a concern about the course. The Course Co-ordinator will be happy to discuss any concerns you may have. Alternatively, you can report your concerns to the Class Representative who will follow up with departmental staff. If, after making approaches via these channels, you do not feel that your concerns have been addressed, there are University channels that may aid resolution. For further advice or more information on these, contact the departmental administrator or head of department.

Disclaimer

While every effort is made to ensure that the information contained in this document is accurate, it is subject to change. Changes will be notified in class and via Blackboard. Students are encouraged to check Blackboard regularly. It is the student’s responsibility to be informed.
The purpose of this document is to have a consistent policy throughout the department as well as to develop students’ time management skills. It reflects usual practices in the business world in which neither success (here: grades) nor deadlines are negotiable.

1. Dissemination of Grades – Regarding internal assessment, the numerical marks will be returned to students via eVision no later than two weeks after the assessment has been submitted. All students are requested to check their marks as they appear on eVision. Any discrepancies should be reported to the course administrator as soon as possible.

2. Late Assignments – Assignments received up to 24 hours after the deadline will have 10 marks deducted from the available grade for the piece of assessment (i.e. a 78% becomes a 68%). Assignments received between 24 - 48 hours after the deadline will have 20 marks deducted from the available grade. Assignments received 48 hours after the deadline will not be marked and there will be no grade given. If you are required to submit both an electronic and hardcopy of your assignment both need to be submitted on time. If only one of the versions of your assignment (i.e., hardcopy or electronic) is submitted on time and the other version is submitted late then you will receive half of the penalty associated with the respective late submission.

3. Extensions – Extensions will be granted only in exceptional circumstances (e.g., illness with supporting medical documentary evidence stating nature and length of impairment, family emergency, provincial or national representative activities) by the appropriate paper administrator. If the assignment or internal assessment tests count significantly towards the final result then a formal medical certificate is required. As a guideline, an internal assessment component which counts for 20% of the final result would be considered significant. Lecturers are not authorised to give extensions. Only the programme leaders should be approached for extensions. Leah Watkins and Mathew Parackal are the programme leaders for this course.

Computer problems do not constitute an exceptional circumstance unless it is an officially notified failure of university equipment.

4. Academic Misconduct – “Academic misconduct is seeking to gain for yourself, or assisting another person to gain, an academic advantage by deception or other unfair means. The most common form of academic misconduct is plagiarism.” Plagiarism is the dishonest use of someone else’s words, facts or ideas, without proper acknowledgement. Most students will include other people’s ideas and information in their work and assignments - such material may be either quoted or digested and used by students. In either case, acknowledgement is essential.

For further information please refer to http://www.otago.ac.nz/study/academicintegrity/index.html.

5. Problems with group work – Where group work is set and a group is experiencing difficulties, the students should approach their tutor to try to resolve these differences. The tutor will counsel the group, or individuals from the group, on the procedures open to them to resolve group problems (the problem should be raised prior to the work being completed or handed in).

The procedure to be followed is:

i) students should try to resolve the problems within the group without outside assistance.

ii) students should meet with their tutor to endeavor to resolve outstanding issues.

iii) the tutor will arrange for students to meet with the paper administrator who will endeavor to resolve the situation.

This procedure MUST be completed to step iii) before the assignment is submitted for grading. Where there are still unresolved difficulties, step iv) will be implemented.

iv) students will complete a ‘Peer Assessment’ form available from the appropriate paper administrator (which must be submitted to the tutor or paper administrator before any grades are released).

Paper administrators reserve the right to require all students to complete peer assessment forms at any time during and/or after submission of an assessed group project. Should there be differences in the peer assessment forms, the student(s) will be required to either submit in writing to, or meet with a group comprised of their paper administrator and lecturer(s) and others (as deemed appropriate) to provide an explanation for the discrepancy. A differential allocation of grade may result from this process.
Policy for Special Consideration in Final Exams

 All applications for special consideration must be dealt with through the examinations office not the department ****

The Special Consideration provisions apply only to final examinations and only where it is clearly documented that a candidate has been prevented from taking an examination through illness or other exceptional circumstances beyond his or her control; or has been seriously impaired by illness or other exceptional circumstances beyond his or her control at the time of, or in the 14 day period immediately prior to the examination itself. Where students have been affected by illness or other exceptional circumstances during the teaching period, they are expected to have informed Heads of Departments directly at the time (not individual lecturers or tutors).

Process

You need to make an application through your eVision student portal. For further information please see https://www.otago.ac.nz/study/exams/otago062916.html

No special arrangements can be made for candidates who fail to attend examinations at the correct time.

Deadline:
Five calendar days from the date of the last examination for which you are making an application for Special Consideration.

Please Note:
Applications cannot be accepted without supporting documentation such as a medical certificate.

Absences

1. A student may be offered an aegrotat pass providing:
   (a) their grade for internal assessment is C+ or better and
   (b) the internal grade they have achieved has contained a significant element of individual work as opposed to group assignments (25% of the total grade for the paper).

2. All other cases will be offered a special examination.

3. In some cases that qualify for an aegrotat, it may be relevant to offer the student the choice of an aegrotat or a special examination. For example aegrotats at any stage of the course can have a detrimental effect on a student's ability to qualify for scholarships.

4. Special examinations for Semester One 2020 will be held on (date to be arranged), in the week prior to Semester Two commencement.

   Special examinations for Semester Two 2020 will be held on (date to be arranged), two weeks after cessation of official examination period.

Impaired Performance

1. If the student has no internal assessment there will be no adjustment to the exam mark and only an optional special will be offered.

2. If the student has internal assessment the examination mark may be adjusted by taking account of the discrepancy between the examination and internal marks, with particular attention to individual work for the student in comparison to that for the whole class.

3. In all other circumstances the student will be offered the choice of accepting this mark or sitting a special examination.

4. Once a student accepts to take a special examination the original examination mark is nullified and the result of the special examination replaces the original mark, even if it is lower. Any absence or impairment for the special examination must be covered using the same regulations as apply for normal university examinations.
