

Ngā Pou Mauriora: A Māori wellness framework

Andrew Waa

Te Rōpū Rangahau Hauora a Eru Pōmare

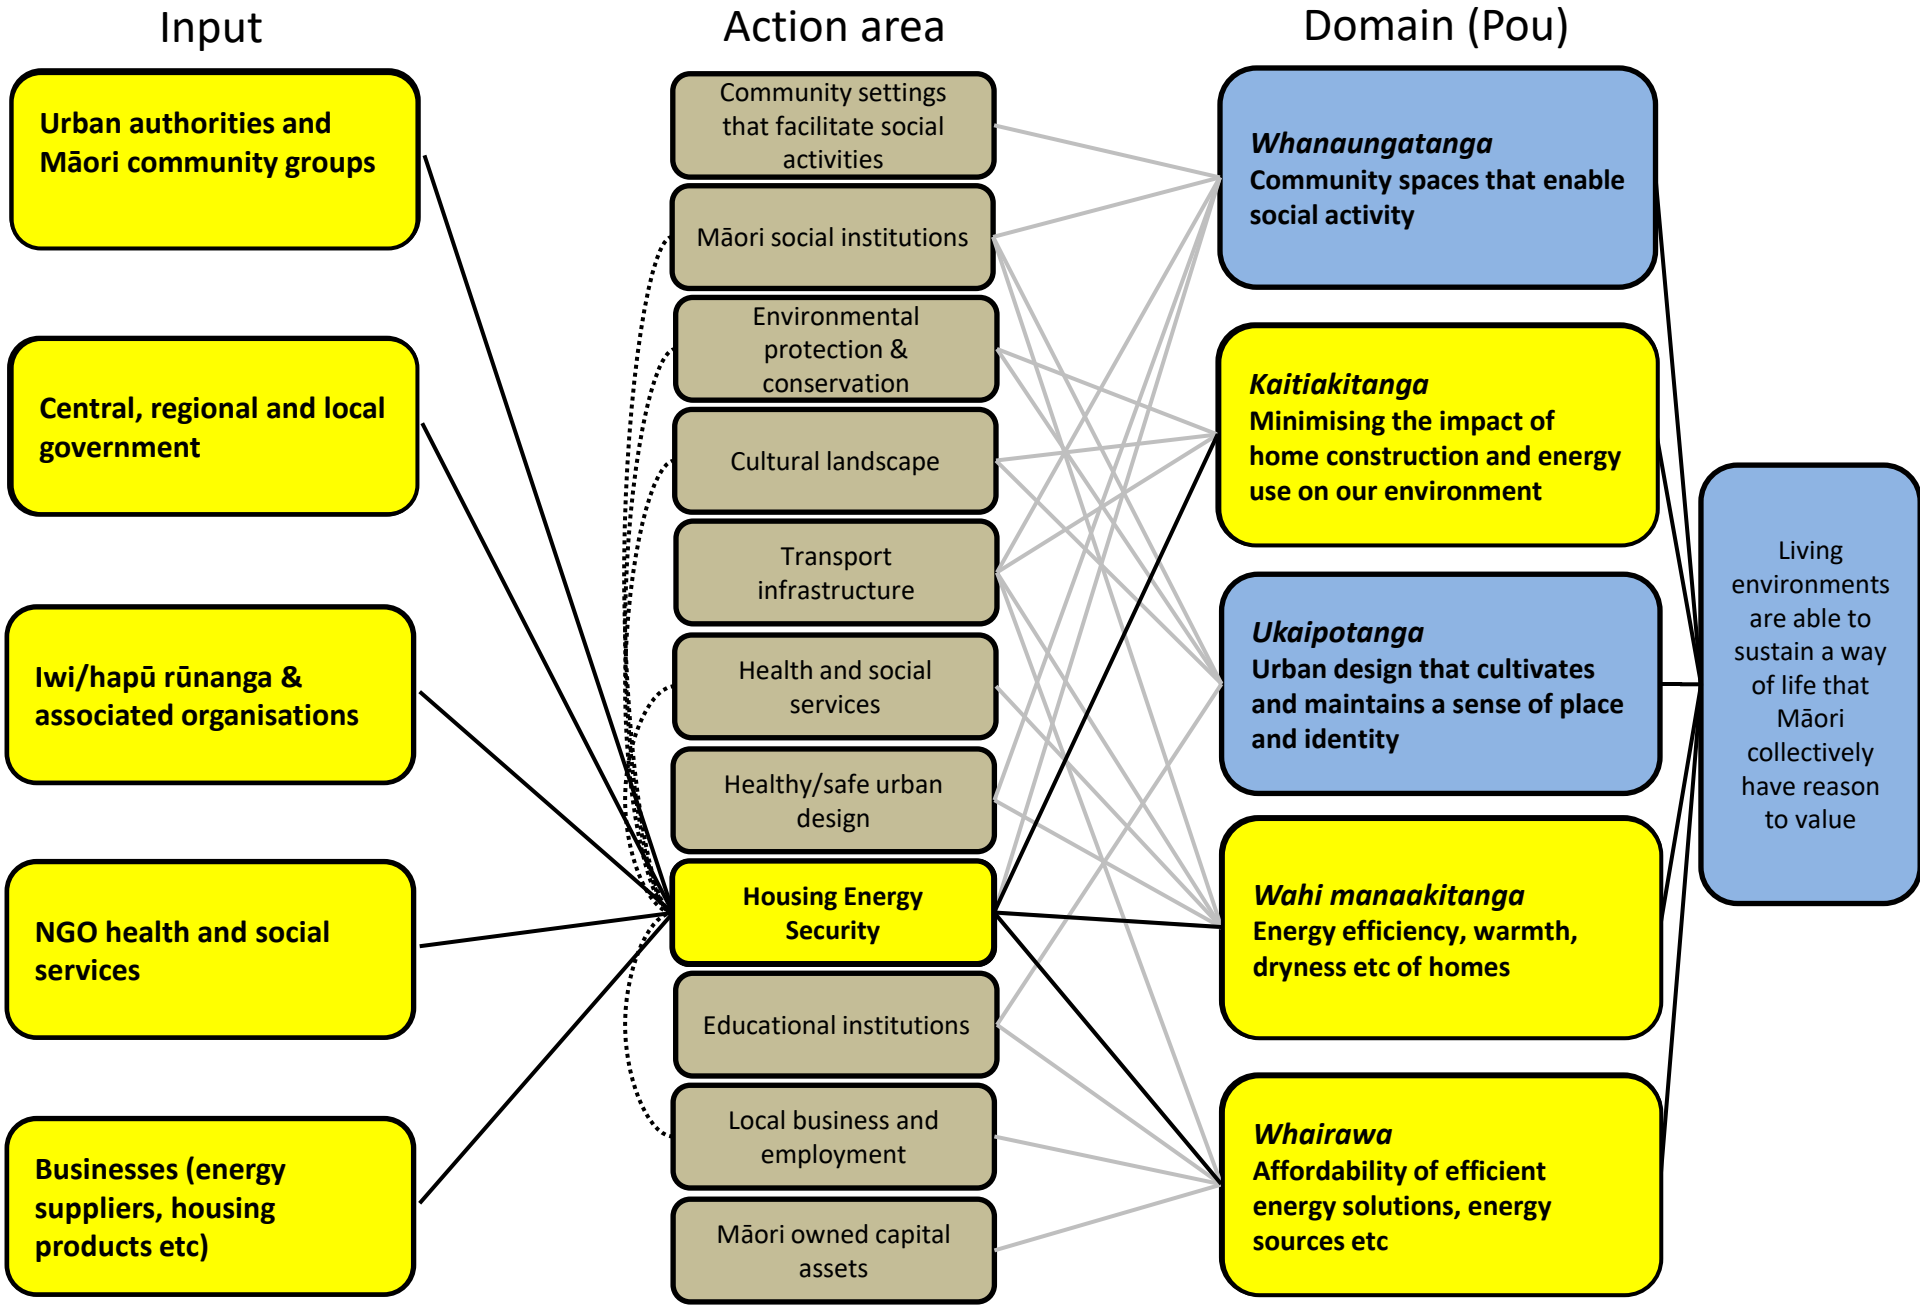

Background

- Tāone Tupu Ora strand, Resilient Urban Futures programme
- Wanted to understand drivers of urban Māori wellbeing
 - Role of urban governance
 - Evaluation tool to help develop and assess
- Consolidated existing literature and Māori models
 - ‘Capabilities’ perspective on wellbeing
 - ‘Able to be well’
- Logic model format
 - Inputs → actions → outcomes

Source: CPH, CDHB

Ngā Pou Mauriora: Energy Hardship

Concluding thoughts

- Energy security and wellbeing
 - ‘Capability’ that enables well living
 - Action area impacts and pou as success measures
 - Range of stakeholders
 - Complex relationships
- Could be re-presented as a system, e.g.
 - Domains as outputs
 - Action areas as components
 - Inputs as actors

