

Otago Clinical Skills Laboratories Simulation Symposium

Excellence through hands-on clinical education

Programme

Monday 18 March 2019

Morning Workshops: 8am-12pm
Complimentary Lunch: 12pm-1pm
Plenary Lectures: 1pm - 4pm

Numbers limited – please register online
otago.ac.nz/OCSL

Proudly supported by:

Dunedin School of Medicine
Te Kura Whaiora o Ōtepoti

Southern District Health Board
Piki Te Ora

	Stream A – Octagonal Meeting Room	Stream B – Venue to be confirmed
8:00 - 9:30	Sleep In 	In - Situ Simulation : Ward-based simulation exercise co-facilitated by Jesse Spurr, Ohad Dar and PDU educators (Limited numbers/ - 15)
9:30 - 11:00	Contemporary approaches to simulation for health professional students Victoria Brazil, MaryLeigh Moore New formats, new technology, new objectives	In-Situ Simulation : Ward based simulation exercise co-facilitated by Jesse Spurr, Ohad Dar and PDU educators (Limited numbers – 15)
11:00 - 12:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Developing students as clinical educators – “medical education trainees” 2.5 hr session (Limited numbers 30)	Scenario Design and Delivery – Deep Dive PDU Room B Jesse Spurr <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Simulated patients – more opportunities “ok, go” – avoiding disqualification through false starts (Limited numbers 30)
12:00 - 13:00	Lunch – Barnett Lecture Theatre Foyer Area
13:00 - 13:10	Belated Welcome – Dr Ohad Dar
13:10 - 14:00 Plenary	Victoria Brazil	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There’s more to team than teamwork Clinical event debriefing
14:00 - 15:00 Plenary	Jesse Spurr	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> In situ sim Why and why not Quality Improvement and the clinical educator
15:00 - 16:00 Plenary	Cara Thompson	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> NetworkZ Is Coming MORsim to clinical life
15:45-16:00	Closing Comments – Dr John Edmond	