Select bibliography: a selection of secondary sources

Scottish (and British) emigration: general background

Tanja Bueltmann, Andrew Hinson and Graeme Morton (eds), Ties of bluid, kin and countrie: Scottish associational culture in the diaspora (Guelph, 2009).

Stephen Constantine (ed.), Emigrants and Empire: British settlement in the dominions between the wars (Manchester, 1990).

Angela McCarthy (ed.), A global clan? Scottish networks and identities since the eighteenth century (London, 2006).

Genealogical research (mainly Scottish)

Bruce Durie, Scottish genealogy (Stroud, 2008).

Scottish emigration to New Zealand

History Scotland, vol. 10, no. 4 (July/August 2010). New Zealand Special, with articles by Seán Brosnahan, Marjory Harper, Jim McAloon, Angela McCarthy, Mark Stocker, Kim Sullivan.

S. R. H. Jones, Doing well and doing good: Ross & Glendining, Scottish enterprise in New Zealand (Dunedin, 2010).

Angela McCarthy, “‘The only place worth thinking about’: personal testimony and Irish and Scottish migrants in Australasia, 1921-61”, Social History, vol. 33, no. 3 (August 2008), pp. 317-35.
A selection of online sources

The National Archives – emigrants
http://www.nationalarchives.gov.uk/records/research-guides/emigrants.htm

The National Archives of Scotland
http://www.nas.gov.uk/guides/emigration.asp

The National Library of Scotland
http://www.nls.uk/catalogues/online/scotsabroad/index.html

The Scottish Archive Network (SCAN)
http://www.scan.org.uk/

Imperial War Museum collections search http://www.iwmcollections.org.uk/qryMain.php

National Museum of Scotland
http://www.nms.ac.uk/our_museums/national_museum.aspx

Merseyside Maritime Museum
http://www.liverpoolmuseums.org.uk/maritime/archive/

Am Baile
http://www.ambaile.org.uk/

Empire online
http://www.empire.amdigital.co.uk/introduction/

History of International Migration. University of Leiden http://www.let.leidenuniv.nl/history/migration/
The History of International Migration site is maintained by researchers at the University of Leiden. It aims to provide information and access to Internet resources relevant to the field. The site is divided into chronological time periods each of which provides an overview of trends in international migration at this time, an analysis of its causes, social, political and economic consequences and reactions to it. Links are provided to other related websites.
Migration to other parts of the world timeline http://www.let.leidenuniv.nl/history/migration/chapter54.html

Immigrant Ships Transcribers Guild
http://www.immigrantships.net
The Immigrant Ships Transcribers Guild website is of value for researchers of family history, genealogy and immigration history. It provides links to sites to research emigration, immigration and naturalization. These include many containing searchable databases of passenger lists for individuals travelling from Britain to the colonies from earliest times. Much of the site is maintained by volunteers.

NZ Family History pages
http://www.nzsghamilton.co.nz/NZ.htm

Child Migrants Trust
http://www.childmigrantstrust.com/
The Child Migrants Trust works to reunite former child migrants with their families. Its website provides information on the history of British child migration, family research services and campaigns to assist former child migrants and their families. It includes access to recent news stories and campaign materials.

Early New Zealand Books
http://www.enzb.auckland.ac.nz
Early New Zealand Books (ENZB) is a project of the University of Auckland Library. It is currently digitising a collection of significant books published about New Zealand in the nineteenth century which are held in Special Collections/Kohikohinga Motuhake in the University of Auckland Library. Many areas of interest covered by these include: British colonization and settlement in New Zealand, travellers’ accounts of contacts with the native community, anthropological studies of the Maori peoples and the history of New Zealand. Users may browse the catalogue or search. Copyright information is displayed on the site.

Passenger lists
http://www.newzealandshipping.co.nz/History/Passenger/index.htm
NZ OFFICIAL SITES

National Library resources
http://www.natlib.govt.nz/collections/areas-of-focus/family-history/family-history-cd-rom-resources

Te ARA history of immigration to NZ web site

PUBLIC LIBRARIES

Hamilton Public Libraries: migration pages
http://hamiltonlibraries.co.nz/page/pageid/2145866856

Detailed links including this section
Shipping
Auckland area passenger arrivals - from Auckland City Libraries
Christchurch City Libraries - digitised passenger lists
Denise and Peter’s stuff - includes over 1000 passenger lists as well as other useful information
New Zealand Bound - including passenger lists and ship information, a site with many links.
New Zealand Yesteryears - shipping lists, photographs and diaries
New Zealand Maritime Index - search the index for vessels, organisations, subjects and people mentioned in books and magazines
Ships to New Zealand - includes ships of the Waikato immigration scheme

Dunedin Public Libraries: migration pages

Nelson Public Libraries
http://www.nelsoncitycouncil.co.nz/nelson-family-history-centre/

Tasman District Libraries
A good section of guides how to....