

Research Presentations, Part 3

Chair: Joshua James

14:00 Damon Lillis (Coursework MA, Sociology):
'Negotiating corporate nationalisms: The lived nation and Rugby World Cup 2019'

14:20 Laura Schilperoort (PhD, Sociology):
'Practising gender equality: Church-going couples' experiences of egalitarianism and tools for counter-cultural living'

14:40 Supriya Rajappan (PhD, Sociology):
'Migrant adolescents and bullying: The experiences of Indian ethnic adolescents in New Zealand'

15:00 AFTERNOON TEA

Researcher Emotional Safety as Ethics in Practice: Panel Discussion

Facilitator: Nikki Fahey
(Graduate Wellbeing Coach)

15:30 Louisa Choe (PhD, Sociology) and Simon Clay (PhD, Gender Studies) reflect on unexpected ethical dilemmas encountered during their research journeys.

16:15 CLOSING AND THANKS

WAIATA: Pūrea nei

Sundowners from 16.30
Eureka Bar and Café, 115 Albany Street

Seeking student representatives to serve on the Postgraduate Committee

Are you interested in shaping the postgraduate research culture in your programme? Would you like to represent your peers on the postgraduate committee? If so, please read on ...

Benefits:

- Gain committee/teamwork experience
- Develop leadership and mentoring skills
- Play a decisive role, alongside staff, in shaping the culture of the postgraduate community
- Kudos (and a reference letter from the PG Committee Chair)

Roles and responsibilities:

- Liaise with fellow students on a regular basis
- Attend monthly meetings
- Raise matters of general concern with committee members
- Relay important information back to students
- Co-edit a quarterly postgrad newsletter
- Attend and assist with programme-level initiatives, such as seminars, morning teas, annual symposium etc.
- Mentor new students
- Drive new initiatives that enhance postgraduate research culture

Length of term:

± 12 months

If this sounds like an opportunity that you would like to pursue, please send an expression of interest (EoI) of 250-300 words to marcelle.dawson@otago.ac.nz by 31 October 2019. The EoI should spell out why you would like to be a postgrad rep and what you can bring to this role. You may also list one or two new initiatives that you are keen to pursue.

Sociology, Gender Studies and Criminology
Te Taura Takata

Postgraduate Symposium III Programme

Friday 9 August 2019

St Margaret's College
333 Leith Street

Sociology, Gender Studies and Criminology | Te Taura Takata

09:00 MIHI WHAKATAU
Kerri Cleaver
Kāi Tahu, Kāti Māmoe and Waitaha
(PhD Candidate, Children's Issues Centre)

WAIATA: Te taukaea aroha

09:20 OPENING
Dr Marcelle Dawson
(Chair, Postgraduate Committee) &
Professor Chris Brickell
(Head of Programme, Sociology, Gender Studies and Criminology)

09:25 WELCOME
Dr Sophie Bond
(Associate Dean Graduate Studies, Division of Humanities)

Opening Address

Chair: Lily Kay Ross

09:30 Professor Rachel Spronken-Smith
(Dean, Graduate Research School):
'PhDs and pathways – what are you preparing for?'

WAIATA: Ngā iwi e

Research Presentations, Part 1

Chair: Damon Lillis

10:00 Simon Clay (PhD, Gender Studies):
'Ecologies of care and the stratified body'

10:20 Kirsten Gibson (PhD, Gender Studies):
'Understanding women's post-prison
experiences in Aotearoa New Zealand'

10:40 Lily Kay Ross (PhD, Gender Studies):
'The survivor imperative'

11:00 MORNING TEA

Research Presentations, Part 2

Chair: Cassandra Joseph

11:30 Romulo Nieva Jr. (PhD, Sociology):
'Contextualising the nexus between incarceration and reproductive wellbeing: The case of women in prisons'

11:50 Nishanthi Perera (PhD, Sociology):
'Sexual health of international students
in New Zealand: Why does it matter?'

12:10 Laura Starling (MA, Sociology):
'Trust in reproductive health apps and social media influencers'

12:30 LUNCH BREAK

3-Minute Thesis Presentations

Chair: Romulo Nieva Jr.

13:30 Poppy Johns (Hons, Gender Studies):
'Homo Ex Machina: Representations of super-intelligent robots'

13:35 Luke Major (Hons, Gender Studies):
'Constructing dramaturgies in a 'post-
AIDS' era: The ethics of HIV/AIDS representation in queer performance'

13:40 Deb McCabe (Coursework MA, Sociology):
'Institutional change and identity:
A critical inquiry'

13:45 Cassandra Joseph (MA, Gender
Studies):
'Rise of the femme tomboy:
Reimagining the spectrum of femininity'

13:50 Gihani De Silva (PhD, Religious Studies):
'Femininity, misery and spiritual liberation: Voices of Mahamevnāwa
Anagārikā nuns'