Sir John Walsh Research Institute Research Day 2018

Highlighting the best dental and oral health research from the Sir John Walsh Research Institute, the research arm of the Faculty of Dentistry.

Featuring keynote presentations from leading local and international researchers, including:

Professor Marco Peres
Director of ARCPOH (Australian Research Centre for Population Oral Health) | Adelaide Dental School, University of Adelaide

Professor Paul Cooper
Professor of Oral Biology and Director of Research at the School of Dentistry | University of Birmingham, UK

Presentations will feature the latest cutting-edge dental and oral health research in the areas of:

- Biomaterials and Oral Implantology
- Clinical and Translational Research
- Craniofacial Research
- Dental Epidemiology and Public Health
- Dental Education Research
- Molecular Microbiology
- Oral Molecular and Immunopathology

Dunedin Public Art Gallery, The Octagon | Thursday 30 August | 8.45am- 5.30pm

For more details on Research Day 2018, visit: otago.ac.nz/sjwri-research-day

For information on other CPD events at the Faculty of Dentistry in 2018, visit: otago.ac.nz/dentistry/cpd

SJWRI Research Day 2018 is made possible by the generous support of 3M Oral Care New Zealand.