Terms and Conditions: Please Read Carefully

The University of Otago highly values the safety of all students and as such may choose not to accept as a Kiwi Host a student who has a criminal conviction. Similarly, the University may not accept a student who has been subject to disciplinary action under the Student Code of Conduct or appeared before the Proctor. The University therefore requests that you answer the following questions:

1. Have you ever been convicted as a result of criminal charges in New Zealand (excluding those convictions protected from disclosure by the Criminal Records [Clean Slate] Act 2004) or any other country?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No
2. Are there any charges pending against you?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No
3. Have you ever been subject to, or are you currently under investigation concerning a breach of the University's Student Code of Conduct?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No
4. Have you ever appeared before the University of Otago Proctor?	<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No

If you answered "yes" to any of the above questions, please provide details:

I confirm that the information given concerning Criminal and Student Code of Conduct offences is correct.

I understand that should I be charged with a criminal offense or be subject to disciplinary action under the University of Otago Student Code of Conduct that I must bring this immediately to the attention of the Warden of University Flats.
