

SEMINAR

Department of Public Health

University of Otago, Wellington | 23A Mein Street | Newtown | Wellington

Behind the scenes in qualitative research

Panel: Moira Smith, Jeannine Stairmand and Marie Stubbe with Moderator: Hera Cook

Textbooks are helpful but if you're doing qualitative research there's a lot to be learned from experienced researchers, such as those on today's panel. Hera Cook will put questions to our three researchers, before inviting inquiries from the audience. The session notes both the joys and the pitfalls of qualitative research, covering such topics as ethics, costings, field work, relationships, handling data – and more.

If you are a qualitative researcher, or just interested in how it all works, this is for you.

Maria Stubbe works in the Department of Primary Health Care & General Practice, Jeannine Stairmand in Te Rōpū Rangahau Hauora a Eru Pōmare, and Moira Smith and Hera Cook in the Department of Public Health at the University of Otago, Wellington.

Friday 1 June 2018 12.30 to 1.15

Small Lecture Theatre, Level D, University of Otago Wellington

To join by web-conference go to: https://otago.ac.nz/zoom/ph_seminars

For more information, see <http://otago.ac.nz/UOWevents>

Watch seminars: UOW Public Health Seminars 2018

ALL WELCOME!