

2021 PUBLIC HEALTH
SUMMER SCHOOL

FREE OPEN TALKS
All welcome

W E L L I N G T O N

Improving our buildings, cutting carbon

Dr Geoff Bertram | Institute for Governance and Policy Studies,
Victoria University of Wellington

Professor Philippa Howden-Chapman | He Kāinga Oranga
NZ Centre for Sustainable Cities, University of Otago, Wellington

BOOK LAUNCH and PRESENTATION

Improving our buildings, cutting carbon is a collection of essays by a wide range of experts in the areas of decarbonising new and existing buildings while maintaining health and wellbeing. The book, from the New Zealand Centre for Sustainable Cities, highlights both achievements and major gaps in policy in Aotearoa. At the launch Dr Geoff Bertram will comment on how New Zealand's built environment sector can reduce its carbon emissions and explore the challenges and opportunities of the transition to a zero carbon future.

Tuesday 16 February, 5:15pm
Refreshments will be served following the talk.

Small Lecture Theatre, Level D
University of Otago, Wellington
23A Mein St | Newtown | Wellington
For more information: otago.ac.nz/uowsummerschool

Dr Geoff Bertram (left)

Dr Geoff Bertram is a senior associate at the Institute for Governance and Policy Studies with research interests including climate change policy, income and wealth distribution, industry regulation and macroeconomic policy.

Professor Philippa Howden-Chapman

Professor Philippa Howden-Chapman is co-director of He Kāinga Oranga Housing and Health Research Programme and director of the New Zealand Centre for Sustainable Cities at University of Otago, Wellington. She was honoured in the 2021 New Year Honours List for her public health work researching the links between urban housing, health and well-being.

otago.ac.nz/uowsummerschool